

In order to support the strong growth of Aera Group, we are looking for a :

Analyst Intern

Flexible location

CDI, Full time

Your main missions will be to participate in :

- Analysis of the eligibility and carbon potential of Renewable Energy and NBS projects
- Management of project registration procedures with International Standards
- Coordination of the different stages of certification (technical documents, visits, verifications)
- Elaboration of financing requests (green finance mechanisms)
- Intervention in other certification projects (RE, improved stoves, waste treatment)
- Monitoring of regulatory changes in projects

Your profile :

- Diploma Bac+5 Engineering School
- Specialization in Environment, Sustainable Development, Biodiversity
- Ability to work in English and French
- Ability to write, analyze and summarize
- Mastery of Microsoft Office
- Excellent interpersonal skills, rigorous, methodical, autonomous and reactive
- Great capacity of adaptation and availability

100% home office or coworking internship (choice of location in metropolitan France).

For all applications: job@aera-group.fr (CV with the mention Analyst Intern in the subject line)

About Aera Group :

Join a fast-growing startup, leader in carbon finance in Africa. As the leading carbon credit trader in Africa, we are present in more than 15 countries on the continent and hold a portfolio of credits worth €500 million. We have achieved €15 million in revenues in 2021 and anticipate strong growth in 2022 in a promising and innovative sector.

www.aera-group.fr