

In order to support the strong growth of Aera Group, we are looking for a :

Carbon Analyst

Flexible location

CDI, Full time

Your main missions:

- Analyze the eligibility and carbon potential of Renewable Energy and NBS projects
- Manage the registration procedures of the projects with the International Standards
- Coordinate the different stages of certification (technical documents, visits, verifications)
- Participate in the elaboration of financing requests (green finance mechanisms)
- Participate in other certification projects (RE, improved stoves, waste treatment)
- Monitor regulatory changes in projects
- Be a force for proposal to the Management

Your profile :

- Diploma Bac+5 Engineering School
 - Specialization Environment, Sustainable Development, Biodiversity
 - Junior profile required
 - Experience in carbon projects
 - Ability to work in English and French
 - Ability to write, analyze and summarize
 - Proficiency in Microsoft Office
 - Excellent interpersonal skills, rigorous, methodical, autonomous and reactive
 - Great capacity of adaptation and availability
- Poste 100% en télétravail ou coworking (choix de localisation en France métropolitaine).
Rémunération en fonction de l'expérience et du profil.

For all applications: job@aera-group.fr (Resume with the mention Carbon Analyst in subject)

About Aera Group :

Join a fast-growing startup, leader in carbon finance in Africa. As the leading carbon credit trader in Africa, we are present in more than 15 countries on the continent and hold a portfolio of credits worth €500 million. We have achieved €15 million in revenues in 2021 and anticipate strong growth in 2022 in a promising and innovative sector.

www.aera-group.fr